GRANT APPLICATION FORM

Eligibility:

Female students who are of Scottish origin or have lived most of their lives in Scotland, preferably studying in Scotland are eligible to apply for funding from The Muirhead Trust.

The Trust supports aspiring Medical practitioners, Veterinary Medical practitioners, Pharmacists, Nurses, Dentists, Scientists and Engineers, including Biological and Chemical Engineering as well as the more traditional Engineering subjects.

Biomedical, Environmental, Forensic Science, Life Sciences, and Arts and Humanities are out with the Trust's remit.

Phd funding is not supported by The Muirhead Trust.

- Please enclose an academic transcript with your application.
- For students about to enter their first year of study, please provide evidence of your unconditional offer.
- Please provide evidence that you have met the conditions of your offer as soon as you have been informed.
- If you were in receipt of a grant from The Muirhead Trust, you must send a letter or report informing the Trust of your personal year of study.
- Please note: If you have been awarded funds from The Muirhead Trust in the past, The Trust may not reconsider your application.
- The Trust may decide to meet all the beneficiaries of awards at the end of the academic year.
- The Muirhead Trust AGM is held between September and November, where all applications are considered along with any other business. The grants awarded usually range from £500.00 to £1,000.00.

Muirhead Trust: Privacy Policy

The Muirhead Trust is committed to protecting the privacy of its applicants. If you apply for an award, the personal data you submit will be held in digital format. Some details may also be held in hard copy. This is necessary to enable the Trustees to assess your application and to administer any award. Under the terms of the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR), which came into force on 25th May 2018, 'Legitimate interest' is the lawful basis for processing your personal data.

The personal information you provide in your application will be made available only to Trustees who have a role in assessing applications. It will not be shared with any other parties. It will be used only for the purpose of assessing your application. Individual data relating to unsuccessful applicants will be destroyed following the awards meeting. Individual data relating to successful applicants will be destroyed at the end of the period of the award.

In addition to the personal information provided at the application stage, the Trust may request further personal data to enable awards to be paid. Such data will be made available only to Trustees who have a direct role in administering or monitoring awards.

Some information you provide may be used to support data analysis. Any analysis will present aggregated, but not personal data in any public report.

The Trust is registered with the Scottish Charity Regulator (OSCR), and is required to submit an Annual Report, which will be made publicly accessible. The report may contain names of awardees for the year in question and the amount of their award. It will contain no further personal information.

If you have any questions about the way in which we hold and process your personal information, or if you wish to make a complaint, please contact the Muirhead Trust Treasurer / Secretary.
